

Declaration of Intent of Nong Pla Mo Sub-district Administrative Organization
On "Integrity, Transparency, Clean Nong Pla Mo 2026" and "No Gift Policy" (No Gift Policy)

I, Mr. Jamrat Pattanang, Chief Executive of Nong Plamo Subdistrict Administrative Organization, hereby declare that Nong Plamo Subdistrict Administrative Organization shall be an organization in which all state officials strictly adhere to a No Gift Policy, refraining from accepting any gifts, gratuities, or any other benefits arising from the performance of their duties.

This includes the prohibition of soliciting, accepting, or consenting to receive any assets or benefits that may influence the exercise of discretion in the performance of duties, whether prior to, during, or after the performance of such duties, which may lead to corruption and misconduct in any form.

In this regard, I shall supervise, oversee, and promote all personnel under Nong Plamo Subdistrict Administrative Organization to perform their duties in accordance with the principles of morality, ethics, transparency, and good governance. All duties shall be carried out with integrity, honesty, accountability, and with primary regard for the public interest, ensuring that all actions are verifiable and transparent.

All personnel are required to strictly comply with this policy, which shall be regarded as a common practice of the organization, in order to foster an organizational culture grounded in righteousness, fairness, and free from corruption.

Furthermore, I solemnly pledge to conduct myself in accordance with the royal guidance, to uphold, preserve, and further develop the King's philosophy, and to adopt the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy as a guiding principle in both personal conduct and official duties, for the well-being of the people and the sustainable development of the nation.

Henceforth

Announcement on 20 February, 2026

(Mr. Jumrus Pattanang)

Mayor of NongPlaMo Sub-district Administrative Organization
